

Bridgewater SENSE Networking Meeting on Friday, January 23

INVITATION: You are invited to attend the Bridgewater SENSE network meeting. Come hear local organizations, community groups, schools and businesses are doing regarding sustainability education in and around Bridgewater. Hear from Leon de Vreede, Sustainability Planner for the town of Bridgewater, Jim Drescher with Windhorse Farms, Andrea Cleland with Global Education Association, The Nodding Group, Rosmarie Bradley with Helping Nature Heal, Amanda Lavers with Mersey Tobeatic Research Institute, and Bettina Grunwald with Claussen Walters Real Estate. The meeting will take place on Friday, January 23rd from 10am to 3pm and will be held at the NSCC Lunenburg campus in Bridgewater located at 75 High Street, five minutes from Highway 103. Networking meetings for formal, non-formal and information educators provide a great opportunity to learn from one another, share resources and organize our activities with the aim of advancing all of our visions and missions. It's a great chance to see what organizations, groups and businesses are doing in relation to sustainable education in and around Bridgewater. Bring your business cards and materials to share with others.
