

INVITATION: Strategy Session on Moving Forward on Education for Sustainable Development (ESD) in Nova Scotia on Friday, March 26

There will be a free, public strategy session on advancing Education for Sustainable Development (ESD) in Nova Scotia on Friday, March 26 from 1:30pm-4:30pm at the NSCC Waterfront Campus in Room 4426, 80 Mawioni Place in Dartmouth. This strategy session is being held in conjunction with the Green Roots Symposium.

The meeting will bring together leaders in education and sustainability, provide provincial and national updates on Education for Sustainable Development (ESD) initiatives, allow stakeholders to share resources, and identify next steps for action. There will be a facilitated dialogue with presenters from the Nova Scotia Department of Education, the Nova Scotia Community College, The Minister's Round Table on the Environment & Sustainable Prosperity, Education for Sustainable Development Canada, and Learning for a Sustainable Future. The meeting is organized by SENSE: Sustainability Education in Nova Scotia for Everyone.

There is limited seating and RSVPs are required. To RSVP and for more information, please visit the SENSE web page <http://www.nsen.ca/education.php> or contact Sam Juru by phone (902) 454-6864 or email at esd_novascotia@lsf-ist.ca.

Note: There will be a free, optional outdoor tour of NSCC Waterfront Campus, which will explore new green features of the Centre for the Built Environment at 12:30 p.m.
